

I'm in that 745
 Hope I can come scoop you up 'round 7:45
 Slide 'round with my drop top up or down, you down to ride?
 Looked into my eyes and told me "Daddy sure you right"

All my life man I want fast cars, NASCARs
 All my life I want runway stars, Kate Moss
 All my life I want waves at my front door
 No green grass, no porch
 I just want sea shores
 All my life
 All my life pretty women done told me lies
 All my life pretty women done told me lies
 All my life pretty women done told me lies
 Told me lies, told me lies

Eyes can't hide your hate for me
 Maybe it was made for the Maybelline
 Spend so much tryna park the car
 Barely got a tip for the maître d'
 You head straight to the oyster bar
 I tread light each time I speak
 Play too rough might break ya heart
 And them glass shoes ain't made to walk
 These lonely streets
 Unpaved, unscathed
 Morning dew's giving you the coldest feet
 Said that she was comin' through after dark
 Look at the stars, they hardly speak
 This thing called love is real hard for me
 This thing called love is a God to me
 And we all just got property
 So feel free to fulfill the prophecy

Adam, Eve
 Apple tree
 Watch out for the snakes baby
 Open streets
 Ocean breeze
 We should get away, baby
