

Animal

Vinnie Vincent Invasion

I rise from the ashes
From the core of the earth
Evil undetermined
Claim my bounty's worth

Rise all creatures and hail to the beast
Eyes full of fire
Consummate my feast

I prowl the innocent forbidden terrain
Unleashed, half human, half insane

Animal - Howlin' through the night
Got my prey in sight
Animal - Foamin' at the mouth
For your sweet delight

Come drink from the well of desire and greed
Angelic creation queen of my dreams
With passion and fire, I'm gonna plant that seed
Where ecstasy explodes in a silent scream

I'll make your blood tingle in a throbbing rage
Let nature's bounty be now uncaged

Animal - Howlin' through the night
Got my prey in sight
Animal - Foamin' at the mouth
For your sweet delight
Animal - Surrender to my ritual rites

Animal - Howlin' through the night
Got my prey in sight
Animal - Foamin' at the mouth
For your sweet delight
