He Likes Me

Violent Femmes

He likes me, he likes me And oh, isn't that nice He likes me, he likes me And oh, isn't that nice

That your brand new friend, he likes your old true friend And isn't that the way that it ought to be That your brand new friend, he has goodwill to send And you're so free, you're so free, I'm history

He likes you, he says that he loves you And oh, that's good to know
You like him, I hope you don't love him
And oh you should know

That your old true friend, he doesn't like your brand new friend Person to person, it's not on purpose but I take it personally And soon your brand new friend, I hope, I'll have a bon voyage to send And you're so free, you're so free and I'm history

You say, you won't pick and you won't make a choice But I'm so mad I could spit and I hear it in your voice

You say "He likes me, he likes me"
And oh, isn't that swell
"He likes me", you said, "He likes me"
And oh, tell him hell

Oh, from me, great dick, hello from me

Jesus always taught me that I should love my enemy

Darling, my heart's in pain that's why my song's insane

And you're so free, you're so free and I'm history

He likes me, he likes me He likes me But I don't like him He likes me But I don't like him

He likes me
But I don't like him
He likes me
He likes me
But I don't like him

He likes me
But I don't like him
He likes me
But I don't like him
He likes me
