

Bombs Over Broadway

Violent Soho

Fucked up, and the system falls.
Shut up, you're nothing but a whore.
I never knew you could be anything but a fiend boy.
Cry anarchy, the devil's coming for you it's true.

Try and run away, fuck the system,
I never knew you could be anybody.
Try and run away, fuck the riots,
That's all it is; animosity.

Lights out we ain't gonna stay here.
Left out, you're not one of them.
I never knew you could be anything but the scene boy.
You ain't gonna win, you're such a fool you know.

Try and run away, fuck the system,
I never knew you could be anybody.
Try and run away, fuck the riots,
That's all it is; animosity.

Red lights, skyscrapers,
panic stricken, they're all falling.

C'mon lets go, you're not innocent.
C'mon lets go, you're not innocent.

Try and run away, fuck the system,
I never knew you could be anybody.
Try and run away, fuck the riots,
That's all it is; animosity.
