Bombs Over Broadway

Violent Soho

Fucked up, and the system falls.

Shut up, you're nothing but a whore.

I never knew you could be anything but a fiend boy.

Cry anarchy, the devil's coming for you it's true.

Try and run away, fuck the system, I never knew you could be anybody. Try and run away, fuck the riots, That's all it is; animosity.

Lights out we ain't gonna stay here.

Left out, you're not one of them.

I never knew you could be anything but the scene boy.

You ain't gonna win, you're such a fool you know.

Try and run away, fuck the system, I never knew you could be anybody. Try and run away, fuck the riots, That's all it is; animosity.

Red lights, skyscrapers, panic stricken, they're all falling.

C'mon lets go, you're not innocent. C'mon lets go, you're not innocent.

Try and run away, fuck the system, I never knew you could be anybody. Try and run away, fuck the riots, That's all it is; animosity.
