Looking for a smile inside this place Walking through the rooms Makes the time go away.

Every time is madness time You close your door to me Screaming in the night is the music here.

I'll go on looking for the dreams
'Cause I never found you inside of me.

I watch the sunrise behind your eyes
See the future don't pray tonight
Don't you ever cry please get me out of here
I'll never find the answer for you and me.

I'll go looking for the screams
And I'll never find you inside of me.

Running for the day, bleeding in the night Nightmare fills the dreams and I'm hungry for life Love is insanity, impossible to find And going on means going far into the dead light.

Waiting for a light in the sky Colors and reality Are black and white.

Give me back the things I had And leave me alone Some day we'll meet again after my dawn.

I met you in the dark
I brought you to the light
Now there's a dead light
Burning deep inside of you and me.
