The Raven Song

Virgin Steele

Soaring high above the desert far beyond the shifting plains I call your name With a love that goes beyond love past the prison of all time In the sky you and I

From the Dawn of all Creation to the pain of Nevermore Can you hear me in your slumber As I Haunt the Nightly shore

Chorus: Unleash the Raven fly to me Unleash the Raven fly to me

In the Palace of the Spirits where the streets are still and strange, I stand alone 13 moons reveal the sadness where your mortal body drained In the sky ou and I, we can't die

From the Dawn of all Creation Calling from the other side None can ever tear asunder our love is sanctified

[Chorus]

Fly Phantom of Night, Vulture Divine send me Lenore

From the Dawn of all Creation Calling from the other side None can ever tear asunder our love is sanctified

Unleash the Raven fly to me Unleash the Raven fly to me When the Light of Life is over calling from the other side Unleash the Raven fly to me Unleash the Raven fly to me
