

Trail of Tears

Virgin Steele

[Music: De Feis/Pursino, lyrics: De Feis]

Ask and you won't be forgiven
This is a blessing in disguise
All of your choices are spoken
You've killed the child in my eyes
I'm gonna see you burn
When in some dark distant future you'll meet my presence in a song You'll punch the walls in frustration
Can you hear my voice and say I'm wrong?
I'm gonna see you burn
With the first light I touch your skin rise above the challenge, the day begins and the brightnesssss runs to black fading in the darkness I'm not coming back Here we live and here now we die on this mountainside arms entwined, the chosen the brave fire wind to take you away like the wrath of God
Ask and you won't be forgiven
This is a blessing in disguise
All of your choices are spoken
You've killed the child in my eyes
I'm gonna see you burn
