

Lucifer Arise

Viron

Yeah!

Far so long time - A mass of crimes
They took advantage of their might

Their reign is hate - For they await
Lucifer's kingdom if they don't prevail

Frightening is still their trade
Lots of zombies they create
Millions died in name of god
But satan is their lord

Lucifer arise
They will pay for their lies

They urge their brothers to adore
Their vanity the reason for
Mottleys to conceal ignorance
But now decay is in advance

See the blood upon your hands
You will never get a chance
Heaven's gate is locked for thee
Open your eyes and see

Lucifer arise
They will pay for their lies
They will pay for their lies
Pay for their lies

Lucifer arise
They will pay for their lies
They will pay for their lies
They will pay for their lies
