

Playground for Billions

Viron

Look on this world - say what we've earned
Say what you see - and what will be. Oh lord!

We live in a twilight world, the fires of hell still burn
The abyss is near they say, Oh lord - please save us!

Heaven and hell - and countless dominions
Heaven and hell - a playground for billions

Say what you see my lord, is this your will my lord?
Satan speaks - and he laughs!
They moved out of paradise, wear masks as a sad disguise
Still pray to the golden calf, now lord - it's my turn!

Heaven and hell - and countless dominions
Heaven and hell - a playground for billions
