Take a look in the mirror, I've been crying out my eyes for you Cold icy decisions and I wonder

Is it pain that tears my heart from me or is it loss?

All I know is that I want something more more

Don't go askjng me to change my mind (I'm begging you for my fo rgiveness)

Don't go looking for a hidden sign

Don't go askjng me to change my mind (I'm begging you for my fo rgiveness)

Don't go looking for a hidden sign

Was I same to give my heart to you or just bold?

All I know is that I want something more more

Don't go askjng me to change my mind (I'm begging you for my fo rgiveness)

Don't go looking for a hidden sign

Don't go askjng me to change my mind (I'm begging you for my fo rgiveness)

Don't go looking for a hidden sign

Wherever you're going I don't wanna go Whenever you're crying I don't wanna know

Walking in a Parisian boulevard, tears streaming in my face Looking below us, our hearts were breaking

Did we face a different feeling?

Your face, your thoughts intact, visions, feelings, just forlor n

Fading into darkness, fading into darkness

Don't go askjng me to change my mind (I'm begging you for my fo rgiveness)

Don't go looking for a hidden sign

Don't go askjng me to change my mind (I'm begging you for my fo rgiveness)

Don't go looking for a hidden sign

Wherever you're going I don't wanna go Whenever you're crying I don't wanna know

Don't go askjng me to change my mind (I'm begging you for my fo rgiveness)

Don't go looking for a hidden sign

Don't go askjng me to change my mind (I'm begging you for my fo rgiveness)

Don't go looking for a hidden sign
