

Never Enough

Visage

You're playing with questions and I'm chasing regrets
Breathe, state your intentions and make me wanna forget
Cry, cry all you want but I won't come running to you
Stop, turn it around now, I know just what I will do

A tear in my soul, now I'm out of control
Cos it's never enough, never enough, never enough
Can't look in your eyes, can't face your disguise
Cos we're never enough, never enough, never enough

Raw, roar your intentions, make it deep in the dark
Slide, words never real, run now making your mark
Wound, sound in a circle, scared to speak to my face
Cease lose your devotion, shout now shedding disgrace

A tear in my soul, now I'm out of control
Cos it's never enough, never enough, never enough
Can't look in your eyes, can't face your disguise
Cos we're never enough, never enough, never enough

A tear in my soul, now I'm out of control
Cos it's never enough, never enough, never enough
Can't look in your eyes, can't face your disguise
Cos we're never enough, never enough, never enough
