

Of Light And Darkness

Vision Divine

Here I am, faced to you Tell me now whatever could I do?
(Is than now the time to go?)

Today I wear a face born in the falling rain and all I need is her shape
(Where are you now?)

Remember what I said:
"Don't ever lose your faith
when a love is true there is no end..."

Here I lay; out of the window
another star is falling,
another man is dying...

God, I hear an angel knocking to my door:
He comes to wash my sins away
He comes to call my name

Remember what I said:
"Don't ever lose your faith
Now I say one day we'll meet again..."

[Girl:] "Come to me, now you see there's no end, there's no pain..."

Remember what I said:
"Don't ever lose your faith
Now I say one day we'll meet again..."

Far away, she's waiting there for me...
[Girl:] Far away, he's coming here to me...
Far away, we'll start a new life... For ever dreamin' on for ever...
