

Ain't Nothing But Love

Vivian Green

Shoulda know, when I looked into those eyes that, I was going to be free
From the bondage of those who never loved me
And I shoulda know, when he simply touched my hand, he would understand
All of my wants and all of my needs
You were sent alone to love me

Ain't nothing but love (that what it is)
And it gets sweeter and sweeter
Like heaven on earth
Won't you just give me more and more

You love me baby winter, spring, summer and fall
And it's like I'm blinded
I see no one but you at all
Just the sound of your voices give me Chills up my spine ya ooo it thrill me when You love me all night
Your lips speak to me in a language I never knew ooo, but oh how
I understand your heart
When it feels the love from you
