

See all I'm gonna do
Is in my head now
Today I'll turn the page
And start again now
Today I'm gonna grow
And touch the flame
I'm gonna be all right
And change my name

No staring at the clouds
I'm on the ground now
Come in and check it out
You'd better try now
I'm gonna be all pure
And maybe brave
And all of this because
Right from today...

I believe in me
Believe in me...

You'll never see me down
Again in tears now
And never here me shout
>From far away, no
I'm gonna be al close
I'll make my day
The sun is on my side
Tell you again

See all you're gonna do
Is in your head now
Today you'll turn the page
And start again now
Today you're gonna grow
And touch the flame
You're gonna be all right
And change your name

I'm rising high above you
This time I'm gonna be as big as you (let me)
This time I'm gonna be cool
This time I'm gonna prove

I believe in me
Believe in me
