Believe

See all I'm gonna do Is in my head now Today I'll turn the page And start again now Today I'm gonna grow And touch the flame I'm gonna be all right And change my name

No staring at the clouds I'm on the ground now Come in and check it out You'd better try now I'm gonna be all pure And maybe brave And all of this because Right from today...

I believe in me Believe in me...

You'll never see me down Again in tears now And never here me shout >From far away, no I'm gonna be al close I'll make my day The sun is on my side Tell you again

See all you're gonna do Is in your head now Today you'll turn the page And start again now Today you're gonna grow And touch the flame You're gonna be all right And change your name

I'm rising high above you This time I'm gonna be as big as you (let me) This time I'm gonna be cool This time I'm gonna prove

I believe in me Believe in me
