

Love Made Me

Vixen

Our conversation ends too soon, you grab your coat and leave the room

My heart dissolves onto the floor, our world divides, we don't talk anymore

And I still remember when we first met, it was on a night like this

The moon was shining for you and me

When I stood alone, I'd be betrayed by your kiss

Love made me blind to the truth

Love made me crawl, I should've stood up to you

Love made me cry out your name

So what's so good about love when it hurts you this way

Cold lurking nights, in the days there were tears

They held us captive, and chained to our fears

Is this the dream you've been searching for

Is this the love that I don't want anymore

Love made me blind to the truth

Love made me crawl, I should've stood up to you

Love made me cry out your name

So what's so good about love when it hurts you this way

Somewhere in a scene you were holding me, we both never fade

But the hope it sounds on the battleground, nothing's gonna change

Love made me blind to the truth

Love made me crawl, I should've stood up to you

Love made me cry out your name

So what's so good about love when it hurts you this way
