

Kings & Queens

Viza

I don't know where I should go.
Why did you leave me?
I'm in pain from head to toe.
Why did you leave me?
She don't finish her cigarette.
Why did you leave me?
Why don't you come right back to bed, babe.
Why did you leave me?

I don't want to make you cry.
Why did you leave me?
I don't want to make you blind.
Why did you leave me?

But why sweet rose must I be old?
You'll break cause I broke your heart.

I can be your king of clubs.
Why did you leave me?
I can be your queen of spades.
Why did you leave me?
You can be my Lancelot.
Why did you leave me?
I will love you lots and lots.
Why did you leave me?

But why sweet rose must I be old?
You'll break cause I broke your heart.
Defy my love and you'll taste our blood.
Cause you break our love apart.

Death is all but prosperous.
Kings and Queens are in the deck.
Why defeat the love we dream of?
Death is all but treacherous.
Kings and Queens are all that's left.
We defeat our love sweetheart.

Why did you leave me?
