

Take Over the World

Viza

Hide all your women and children at once.
We are the leaders of immoral wars.
Swear in the name of the father and all,
that nothing will stand in our way we'll take over the world.
Rhyme to the reason while the treason is the reason that the bandits outsmart us all.
Rhyme to the reason while the season is the reason that the band outplays us all.
Rhyme to the reason an Italian on a stallion with a gallup that warns us all.
Nothing will stand in our way we'll take over the world.

Hide all your women and children at once.
We are the leaders of immoral wars.
Swear in the name of the father and all,
that nothing will stand in our way we'll take over the world.
