

The Day I Leave Her

Viza

The day I will leave her for good she will find me no more.

I've drank too much.

I've spent too much.

I'm through the roof.

I'm man enough.

I've had enough of chasing you.

The day I will leave her for good she will spy like an old hag would.

I've drank too much.

I've spent too much.

I'm through the roof.

I'm man enough.

I've had enough of chasing you.

The day I leave her she will be sorry.

I'm up to here with her shenanigans and her makeshift stories.

The day I leave her she will go crazy.

She's out her mind if she thinks I'll be back to talk to mommy!

No!

The day I leave her she will be sorry.

I'm not ok but I'll be better after a few more drinks.
