

Viktor's Sister

Viza

Runaway to a far and distant land where fools fall in love knee deep in sand.

Hold your breath till her vultures come to pass for you are a d ove limp on her grass.

Getaway and never bring her back, she's cruel like a clock turn ing too fast.

In a dream dressed in a long and silky robe she will become whi te as a ghost.

Viktor's sister uglified.

Viktor's sister petrified.

Viktor's sister!

Viktor's sister crucified.

Viktor's sister mortified.

Viktor's sister!

She's well on her way to reach the stars.

She's well on her way to break your heart.

She's well on her way to kiss the sky.

She's well on her way to live a lie.

Stay away you nymphomaniac your breasts may be soft but they ar e no match,

For my gun is powered by the sun with god as my witness your ev ening has come.

Viktor's sister uglified.

Viktor's sister petrified.

Viktor's sister!

Viktor's sister crucified.

Viktor's sister mortified.

Viktor's sister!

She's well on her way to reach the stars.

She's well on her way to break your heart.

She's well on her way to kiss the sky.

She's well on her way to live a lie.
