

Icecold

Voices of Destiny

Icecold streams of blood in my veins
Trying to save my heart is broken
In a thousand pieces
All spread on the floor around me

Coldness from deep inside
A cruel fist holding tight my mind
You hear this?
It is so cold that I can hardly breathe
But I\'m breathing your name

Please help me up again
Please turn around
I\'m lying there in the cold
I\'m freezing horribly
Take a step, see my eyes
Staring deeper into nothingness
NOTHING\'S THERE

Crying, single tear leaves my eye
Suddenly all the ground gets iced
You are walking right beside
But I slip when I try to follow you

Please help me up again
Please turn around
I\'m lying there in the cold
I\'m freezing horribly
Take a step, hold my hand
So I can feel you far away
SO FAR AWAY

Warmth in your vicinity
All I fear is to fall back in misery

Don\'t you dare
NO FORGIVENESS FOR COWARDS
Just Despair
WHY CAN T YOU SEE ME WINCE UNDER KNIFE
I pray you know I feel

Warmth in your vicinity
All I fear to fall back in misery
Sun shines into my heart
