

The Untouchable

Voices of Destiny

The puzzle's incomplete and you are staring at the gaps
Wounds you received from all the endless fights for your heart
Surrounded by traitors you don't stand a chance
But listen, I'm a friend among the enemies

Let me make you feel untouchable
I can make you feel invincible
All beyond my reach
The constancy in your resistance is so self-defeating
This will make you feel untouchable

No cure to find in your solitary ways
Lost in denial
Just give in to my hands, I swear they won't hurt
They take you away from this pain
This pain won't hurt
Just believe what I promise

Let me make you feel untouchable
I can make you feel invincible
All beyond my reach
The constancy in your resistance is so self-defeating
This will make you feel untouchable

I can make you feel invincible
This will make you feel untouchable
