When you take your steering wheel When you speed up your engine Your rage makes up your counter Hell spins and burns your tires Hit and run again, I eat when I can I have no limits, my life is a risk Let's speed the road hog His sheet - iron is hot The helldriver and his damnation Speed up in hell to run so fast When the sound of metal raises When the smoking valves make a din Fuel and oil are my blood The law is over I'm out If you want to stop the speed freak Prepare a good plan to do it Cos he's always in the red zone And he's a runner of the hell road.
