

Treasure Chase

Voivod

I'm a pirate of the modern age
And for some I'm the worst of renegades
Chasing hearts of gold

I'm a thief cruising the seven seas
But nothing compares to what I've seen
One day on an island

The treasure I've found in your eyes

I'm the captain of the Roaming Souls
I am lost and my boat is getting old
Alone I'm a ghost

I'm a mad sailor stuck at the port
Drunken, singing, sitting on the docks
I'm drawing a map

The treasure I've found in your eyes

All the diamonds out of this world, all the precious stones dug from earth
I must do something or you'll be found,
I must do something or you'll be gone
Maybe someone knows the secret, maybe someone knows how to get
The treasure I've found in your eyes
