

Caroline Leaving

Volbeat

Which of you am I to lay down first
To shake the coffin or spread the dust
To say hell-o and greet the underworld
Or fly the moment over hill to burn
Feel the lightning, or be the lightning

Enter stellar levigate a name
Among the others we all look the same

Your time is flying now high in the air
So sad to see you got nothing to say
The ravens are crying you home
'Cause the heaven is not you
You'll feel the fire
And i will be joining you too

Two black ravens sitting on a fence
Cakle laughing at mankind itself
Loving how it feel to be that free
And leaving us behind in misery
Feel the lightning, or be the lightning

Enter stellar levigate a name
Among the others we shall look the same
Your time is flying now high in the air
So sad to see you got nothing to say
The ravens are crying you home
'Cause the heaven is not you
You'll feel the fire
And i will be joining you too
