Maybellene I Hofteholder

Saturday I love you like gold Not like the Monday, you pass like a ghost The fire killed you like a motherless child I saw you last Sunday at Barbara Hotel... oh oh oh oh- oh babe I'm so sorry, I've nowhere to...

Could scream like a pig, Could bark like a dog Just to get attention as I'm chasing you down the hall oh Maybelenne you've been so lonely Got a fire burning as I'm smoking you out again... Still all the leaves will keep on falling until I see you dancing on the table 45 again

(I) see you dancing for the young wolves oh oh oh Maybellene i HofteholderCould you be the only oneWell I beg you to come homeDance forever my only one

I flicked the switch at Monday night Oh Maybellene I'm so sorry that I didn't see it coming. And now the sky, I filled with prayers. oh baby I'm sorry I was blind Volbeat
