Soulweeper #2

Volbeat

Settle down for a moment cause your heart is beating hard Baby you've been my lover, and I told you from the start Better no promises, and I'll do you no harm

But you're keep on the question I tell you not to pop But maybe it's been a hurting, it's been hurting from the start Do you not coping then tear it apart

Never wanted it this way Oh baby I'm dying I'm crying over it Maybe you feel it to, oh baby I'm blue

A barren winter came over and your mood was like a fire 7 years and a summer, and you still sit there cry You're better without me, and you're one of a kind

If I knew that December should bring a silent part Shaded truth and partisian between disperated lines Truly now drifting alone in the dark

Never wanted it this way Oh baby I'm dying I'm crying over it Maybe you feel it to, oh baby I'm blue

Well it's over and a letter is flying high Out the window to catch a hand of thine Could the founder release it's bloody words Scream the anger and sorrow of a girl

But you're keep on the question I tell you not to pop But maybe it's been a hurting, it's been hurting from the start Do you not coping then tear it apart

Never wanted it this way Oh baby I'm dying I'm crying over it Maybe you feel it to, oh baby I'm blue Maybe you feel it to, baby I'm blue