

Soulweeper

Volbeat

So sad, so afraid, so frantic

Well I found you girl, and see how it turned I'm so sorry that I put your heart on fire
But I love you too
And I know I should've told you
Way back then
That I wasn't ready yet

So sad, so afraid, so frantic
I'm the soulweeper
So sad, so afraid, so frantic

Well I thought I was Bursting for this one
I'm a fool in pain
and I feel so ashamed
Well I always said
Nothing was meant to be
And I still do baby
And I don't like to be

So sad, so afraid, so frantic
I'm the soulweeper
So sad, so afraid, so frantic

Well a new day is born and I like it
Long lost pictures come to life one more time
Well I know that you sit alone, and that hurts
But we'll always be friends, that's for sure

So sad, so afraid, so frantic
I'm the soulweeper
So sad, so afraid, so frantic
