See the titie klitie hootie boogie woogie girl Distraction no sex, her looks kills more then guns Deceiving, believing the web she spins on you Addicted, pathetic, predicted

For a while or for a day we chase the darkness away Feel the morning (whispers) though a sunny day I promise to take you back into the vault below I'll rise you from the underworld

See the titie klitie hootie boogie woogie wicked girl The sign of a pretty prickly ladies walking around with wicked souls

Chasing their eyes when they bleed again, oh baby girl oh baby gail

Chasing the life and let it roll

Black December leave the earth and let us feel the morning fire The taping fingers on my shoulder make my demons scream and lie Chasing their eyes when they bleed again, oh baby girl oh baby gail

Feeling their eyes and let them roll Chasing a life and live it

Feeling the moment when they cry
My body is sentenced to see where they go
Still they are crying, and deny that mother earth has send them to shores far beyond

Are we all the wonder of a life that we can call our own Oh baby baby still the guiding and the taping leaves us cold

Chasing their eyes when they bleed again, oh baby girl oh baby gail

Feeling their eyes and let them roll Chasing a life and live it

Feeling the moment when they cry
My body is sentenced to see where they go
to shores far beyond
