

Across The Bed

Volumes

It's the way that you do me babe
It's what you do to me
I move with you so perfectly
Take it off as I pull you across the bed
From your head to your feet
A fever rising vigorously

It's getting closer

Reminiscing on the lust you know how it was
The feeling of the warmth of your breath and your touch
Laying in bed with that scent of yours
Staying here instead 'cause I wanted more

It's the way that you do me babe
It's what you do to me
I move with you so perfectly
Take it off as I pull you across the bed
From your head to your feet
A fever rising vigorously

This is the coming of the storm
Can you feel the form?
In perfect patterns in a perfect dream
We are starting up a war, starting up a war
Intoxicated by the lies we breathe
We are duplicitous and insidious
You've pushed me further than I've ever dreamed
We are starting up a war, starting up a war
It should've ended but we just can't leave so far

Pick it up and take it down
Lose your body in the sound
When you cum it gets me high
Let me in your world tonight

It's the way that you do me babe
It's what you do to me
I move with you so perfectly
Take it off as I pull you across the bed
From your head to your feet
A fever rising vigorously
