

The Bringers Of Faith

Vomitory

Like phoenix from ashes he will leave his grave
And he'll be back as master of doom Punisher from hell he's out to take revenge with power to dictate the rules

We can't understand what burning hate achieves
But burning hate can be too strong
In his heart the flame of hate has never died
Coffintime has been too long

A murders heart without pride often it was so afraid
But the time of truth will come to take revenge on every man and every wife many thousand lives must die

We don't know the pain when hunger is killin' children
So we close our eyes again

How can we believe that we are not to blame
Man we should not forget the flame

Are you really sure they are not back some day
Maybe they are back too soon
When hunger turns to hate the flame is burning bright and they take their revenge on you

You send out the sons to fight for your believes Political ideas for fool
You fills the heads with lies and they die by your command
Finally they are used like tools

We can't understand what burning hate achieves
But burning hate can be so strong
In his heart the flame of hate has never died
Coffintime had been too long
