

Kiss A Wish

Von Herten Brothers

My my my my my
Yet another time I'll try
To understand my
My my my my mind
It's ahead, behind
I must unwind

Yet another try, a song, a story, an approach
A kiss, a wish, a smile, which so kindles
A cry, a dive, an another approach and
A kiss, a wish, a smile and that's it

My my my my my
Yet another time i'll try
To overcome my
My my my my my
Tendencies and pride
I must unwind

Yet another grin, a sin, a secret, a weakness
A kiss, a wish, a smile, which so kindles
A cry, a dive, an another approach and
A kiss, a wish, a smile and that's it

Bring me home, where I belong
Bring me home, bring me home

Sing that song, oh sing along
Sing along the way back home

A joke, a song, a story, an approach
A kiss, a wish...
