

7 Days

Vonda Shepard

I'm gonna discontinue him like a
Line that's breaking, breaking
Our love seemed to crash
Like a wave that's taking
Taking down everything

Seven days, that's all it's been
Tomorrow will be eight
Feel like I'm counting
The raindrops in a hurricane

In this perfect place
I believe

Swimming through the days
While the world goes crazy
No wonder the state I'm in
Am I wrong to wanna dream
Myself into oblivion, sweet oblivion?

Seven days I am amazed
Tomorrow will be eight
Feeling like I'm counting
The raindrops in a hurricane
In this perfect place
I believe that there
Is someone for me

In this perfect place
I believe that there
Is someone for me

In this perfect place
I believe
