

Finally Home

Vonda Shepard

Maybe I am finally home
There's a light like a dawn
Drifting my way

Lately, I don't feel so alone
There's a harbour in my soul
And I'm finally home

In my heart I still carry my dreams,
But for right now, this is heaven to me
In my life I have weathered the storm
There's a harbour in my soul
Keeping me warm

Weightless, I am weightless as you spin me around
In my favourite dress

In my life I have drifted to sea
There's a lighthouse in my soul
And it is guiding me

Lately, I don't feel so alone
There's a harbour in my life
And I'm finally home
