I do not measure the space between Moments of pleasure we'll someday see

If you need a reason let me know

If you need the answer you will know

If you say tomorrow you will go, you will go away

There is no limit

Jam Karet Jam Karet Open every window Jam Karet There is no limit Jam Karet Jam Karet

I do not measure the distance Or instigate any resistance

If you need a reason let me know

If you need the answer you will know

If you say tomorrow you will go, you will go away

There is no limit

Jam Karet Jam Karet
Open every window
Jam Karet
(There is no such thing as time)
Stretching every minute
Jam Karet Jam Karet
There is no limit
Jam Karet Jam Karet

I'll light the fire within you You can make mountains move too

Ooh with my truer friends
I do not notice when the clocks unwind

There is no limit

Jam Karet Jam Karet
Open every window
Jam Karet Jam Karet
(There is no such thing as time)
Stretching every minute
Jam Karet Jam Karet
As long as we are in it
Jam Karet Jam Karet.
