

Lose My Way

Vonda Shepard

I wanna lose my way
And my sense of direction
Wanna lose my bearings
And my point of reference

Wanna go where everything
Don't remind me of our happiness
That we sacrificed for some unknown bliss

I wanna lose my place
In this world I've created
To know who I am
It's so overrated
Wanna break away until my longing has fated
Wanna change my fate

Wanna dream again
Go out dancing
I wanna laugh again
Till I lose my mind

Heavy heart when will you fall?
Again from the weight of this longing?
Inside of me I believe

I thought I found, found me a home
But all I want is to run away
Run from my life tonight

I wanna lose my way
And my sense of direction
Wanna lose my bearings
And my point of reference
