Maryland

Vonda Shepard

I've been thinking I've been thinking I've been thinking too much. I just want to live now for a little while. And cast my dreams to the wind Don't wanna wonder don't wanna wonder what it's all about I'm just working for a living singing with my friends As I cast my dreams to the wind

Maryland I'm coming home Never worry about what I did wrong. And that I'll never be what my daddy wanted me to be and I'llnever see what my mama's dreams were But I will sing La la la la la la la ...

I wanna fly I wanna fly down the highway to my home away from home. This funky funky club on Fairfax Avenue to see you. I'll never give up Because what is there to give up anyway? I'm just working for a living working for my pay In Maryland it's raining somewhere in some cafe.

Maryland I'm coming home Never worry about what I did wrong. And that I'll never be what my daddy wanted me to be and I'llnever see what my mama's dreams were But I will sing La la la la la la la ...