

Roll In The Dirt

Vonda Shepard

I have built, built more bridges than I've burned, than I've burned

And I have helped, helped more people, than I've hurt, than I've hurt

But in my life, I'm still humbled by how little I have learned

You killed me baby, without pulling a trigger

You sold me darling, down the long and winding river

I have spent my lifetime seeking the truth

But I just wanna roll in the dirt of my youth

I have begged, begged forgiveness from a friend, from a friend

He doesn't feel, feel the urgency for our struggle, oh for it to end

You knocked me over, with a touch of a feather

You dragged me darling, through some treacherous weather

Oh darling when I'm feeling hurt

I just wanna roll in the dirt

I have spent my lifetime seeking the truth

But I just wanna roll in the dirt of my youth

You killed me baby, without pulling a trigger

You sold me darling, down the long and winding river

Oh darling when I'm feeling hurt

I just wanna roll in the dirt

I have spent my lifetime seeking the truth

But I just wanna roll in the dirt of my youth

I just wanna roll oh...
