

Desperate Heart

Voodoo Circle

In the night I dream of you
I whisper sweet nothings and the love remains
I remember I could never, I could never let you go
I'm lost in my illusion
Banished in my empty room
I feel so torn apart, now I've been left in confusion

You had to run away (Run away)
How could I be so blind?
Can I go on this way? (On this way)
It's hard to believe you when all you left me is my,

Desperate heart
It's aching in me
Desperate heart
Keep holding on
Desperate heart
It's burning in me
Desperate heart
Can I go on?

I saw resentment in your eyes
Got something to prove and nothing to hide
Was it me you were fooling?
That would be your sacrifice
Don't know how you deceived me
Only deceit and all your lies
You stole, away my heart
I'm just not the man that I used to be

You had to run away (Run away)
How could I be so blind?
Can I go on this way? (On this way)
It's hard to believe you when all you left me is my,

Desperate heart
It's aching in me
Desperate heart
Keep holding on
Desperate heart
It's burning in me
Desperate heart
Can I go on?
