

Graveyard City

Voodoo Circle

She walks the streets alone at night
On the corner, in the pouring rain
But she's looking for love, but it's all just a lie
Body's shaking, got only herself to blame, to blame.

Got a broken life that's beyond repair
Just reaching out for someone who will care.

She's going down, to the graveyard city
If she don't make it home
It will be more than a pity.

No sign of freedom in her eyes.
Only sorrow, caught in her vicious game, what a shame.
Now he's taken her soul, like a thief in the night.
She could never know, the he's the devil in disguise.

Got a broken life that's beyond repair
Just reaching out for someone who will care.

She's going down, to the graveyard city
If she don't make it home
It will be more than a pity.
She's going down, to the graveyard city.
He's the devil in disguise, see the fear in her eyes.

Got a broken life that's beyond repair
Just reaching out for someone who will care.

She's going down, to the graveyard city
If she don't make it home
It will be more than a pity.
She's going down, to the graveyard city.
He's the devil in disguise, see the fear in her eyes.
