

Heart of Babylon

Voodoo Circle

I got this urging, aching in my heart.
And I can't take it any more.
The thunder, and the lightning.
The hunger, raging in my soul.

Guardian angel help me find my way.
On a journey, to the child of another day.
No more dreaming, there's nowhere left to run
So let me go.
Into the heart of Babylon.

Lord have mercy for everything I've done.
You got me crawling through the night.
Emotions are rising.
Devotion
Babylon's in sight.

Guardian angel help me find my way.
On a journey, to the child of yesterday.
No more dreaming, there's nowhere left to run.
So let me go
Into the heart of Babylon.

The thunder and the lightning.
The hunger, raging in my soul.
Oh lord, oh lord into the heart of Babylon.
Into the heart of Babylon.
