

Master of Illusion

Voodoo Circle

When your desire seems to die away
And nothing ever stays the same
Now the fight gets harder
Day by day

You think you're loosing the game
Only shadows surrounding you
They passed without a trace
Now you've found your place

It isn't easy, when you've lost your way
Lost the way home
There's a feeling right inside you
Nowhere to roam

You had this vision you were
Lost in the kingdom of pain
All the fear that's inside of you
It all just seemed in vain
You're just a master of Illusion

All the fear inside it still remains?
Could it ever fade away?
But your spirit guides you, through the night

Close your eyes and then return
To the nightmare that's haunting you
You know you'll never see, and you'll never learn
