

Spewing Lies

Voodoo Circle

Do you, do you remember?
The promise you gave that you never meant to keep

I do, I still remember
The painful memories that I never will forget

Now here we stand
So far between us
You live in a dreamland
Where your ego's in focus
Oh, why?
Did you betray me
This is goodbye
I'm gonna break free
From your spewing lies

You took, you took without giving
In love with your mirror and the reflection of yourself

I gave, from the beginning
Now I'm leaving never to come back

Now here we stand
So far between us
You live in a dreamland
Where your ego's in focus
Oh, why?
Did you betray me
This is goodbye
I'm gonna break free
From your spewing lies
