

The Ghost in Your Heart

Voodoo Circle

You've been burning bridges.
For so many years...
You've been disguising sorrow
And loosing all your fears.

All your wisdom, and all your passion.
The prophets spoken.
There's no need to fear the ghost in your heart..

Always hid your feelings
Never had a life.
Always running empty
Only trouble and more strife.

All your wisdom, and all your passion.
The prophets spoken.
So make no mistake, it could be your last.

No more hiding now, from the ghost in your heart.
In a world that is tearing you apart.
When your crying out in your sleep in the night
In this world you can make a new start.
The ghost in your heart.

You've been burning bridges
For so many years.
You've been disguising sorrow
And loosing all your fears.

All your wisdom, and all your passion.
The prophets spoken.
So make no mistake, it could be your last.

No more hiding now, from the ghost in your heart.
In a world that is tearing you apart.
When your crying out in your sleep in the night
In this world you can make a new start.
The ghost in your heart.
