

The Heavens Are Burning

Voodoo Circle

A sign in the darkness is reckons my fate
Brave words sent to save my life
Now, I leave my anger behind
No need to live by the knife

I'm done with my sorrow
No more demons to play with my mind
Can I face my tomorrow?
A painted saint to the blind

The heaven's are burning
So now we face the fire, no place for learning
I've seen the future it's time, for my resurrection

My new beginning has broken the chain
I never felt so alive
Pain, will never run through my veins
I now have the will to survive

I'm done with my sorrow
No more demons to play with my mind
Can I face my tomorrow?
A painted saint to the blind

The heaven's are burning
So now we face the fire, no place for learning
I've seen the future it's time, for my resurrection
The Heavens are burning down

Can I face my tomorrow?
A painted saint to the blind

The heaven's are burning
So now we face the fire, no place for learning
I've seen the future it's time, for my resurrection
The Heavens are burning down
