

The Saint and the Sinner

Voodoo Circle

In my heart, I know your hurting.
Cause I left you behind
Through my eyes I see you waiting
I guess you thought I was blind
In your mind you know
I was waiting for you, waiting for you
In my heart, I know you'll be praying for me tonight.

I've been searching for my destiny and then, I can surrender.
We're still riding on this carousel, can't you remember?

You took one look in my eyes,
And saw the devils disguise
You're the saint I'm the, sinner
Your halo's still going strong
I thought that angels don't lie?
You're the saint and I'm the sinner.
Damage done, but in heaven we'll be one.

The saint and the sinner.
You're the saint and I'm the sinner.

On a long and sacred journey.
On our separate paths.
Nothing more than just beginners.
In our sacred wrath.
Now the dangers coming closer,
don't look in to the light.
Only thing I know,
we'll be in heaven or hell tonight.

I've been searching for my destiny and then, I can surrender.
We're still riding on this carousel, can't you remember?

You took one look in my eyes,
And saw the devils disguise
You're the saint I'm the, sinner
Your halo's still going strong
I thought that angels don't lie?
You're the saint and I'm the sinner.
Damage done, but in heaven we'll be one.

The saint and the sinner.
You're the saint and I'm the sinner.
