

Empty Bottles

Voodoo Glow Skulls

i thing its time i sit this last one out before i fall and make an ass of myself we'll never learn until we see the other side an open mind, we'll try to keep on holding out your at a party the other day and all your friends are there no one's holding back is life that good or fair? by two a.m. you're foaming at the mouth search the whole house what did you find out? when we're together it's electric lunacy then the keg runs dry the beer was free five minutes later there's and immediate reaction- there's no m ore alcohol so we must leave empty bottles..... no one like to find!
empty bottles..... drunks can't cope with!
empty bottles..... oh no! it's two a.m.! empty bottles..... a drunk man's hell!
