W.A.S.P.

You'll be so far out of control You know, the ones you saved

Look in my eye cause somehow you You don't realize what I made

You can't run away from me Don't deny your blind believers And hide your Devil's keeper

Take your love away from me Cause I will blind your heathen reason And ride us on your broken wings for love

True we are disciples lost
You know the promise you made
Look in my eyes and tell me why
You realize the price that you'll pay?

9, # 9, # 9
I'm still inside of
The 9 asylums
Am I Messiah?

You're the only God they know

What are you running from Wasn't this enough Aren't you satisfied? They're all at your feet The Lord to sheep Oh, are you sanctified?
