Thunderhead

Oh Thunderhead, you're a man with a problem Ah old habits too hard to break And soon you'll be dead from that poison that you're on Oh the venom that's worse than the snakes

And I say, hey hey hey, oh no, hey hey hey Oh no, hey hey hey: white thunder Needles and pins a dead man you're in So deep you'll never climb out Hey hey hey, oh no, hey hey hey Oh no, hey hey: white thunder A gun to your dead, the trigger you're dead It's quicker and their ain't no doubt

Oh thunderhead, tie it off, you're in heaven Oh you'll drown in the Heroin flood And die in your bed and sweat in detox You're leaving this world Oh your epitaph's written in blood

And I said hey hey hey, oh no, hey hey hey Oh no, hey hey hey: white thunder Needles and pins a dead man you're in So deep you'll never climb out Hey hey hey, oh no, hey hey hey Oh no, hey hey hey: white thunder A gun to your dead, the trigger you're dead It's quicker and their ain't no doubt

Killer- ya sceam and ya bleed Thriller- you spread your disease Watch out, watch out

Thunder head - yes I'm your master Will you steal for me - yes Will you ruin yourself and give everything unto me- yes Will you lie, cheat, deceive, dishonor everything And even kill thy brother for me - yes, yes Will you worship only me as your true master - yes Thunderhead, will you die for me - yes master

Hey hey hey, oh no, hey hey hey Oh no, hey hey hey: white thunder Needles and pins a dead man you're in So deep you'll never climb out Hey hey hey, oh no, hey hey hey Oh no, hey hey hey: white thunder A gun to your dead, the trigger you're dead It's quicker and their ain't no doubt
